Dear Member

Nol March 1987

Dur Association Annual General Meeting, and luncheon to follow, will be held on Sunday 29th March. The venue has had to be changed as we were notified only this week that the Mandarin Club was no longer serving meals on Sundays. Full details about the meeting, the venue and the cost can be found on centre fold.

Membership subscriptions of $5.00 became due on 1 January last. The note "ARE YDU IN THE RED?" on the last page shows your financial standing - please assist the Association and the Honorary Treasurer by forwarding any monies due to Bill Johnston, 25 Hillview Street, Sans Souci NSW 2219.

Wapenamanda Plane Crash Memorial. The fund set up by the Association has been closed with a total of $190.00 from 13 members. MDney was only trickling in and the Fund Sub-Committee decided that under the circumstances it would not approach ex-Qantas or D.C.A. staff. Fortunately, Hennis Buchanan of Talair in Goroka has offered to arrange for the old memorial plaque to be restored, mounted, and with a small inscription hung permanently in the public area of Wabag airport.

The Sub-Committee would like to thank those who did contribute, especially those who also had subscribed to the original memorial.

A good example to follow. Our September issue noted that for the first six months of last year our income exceeded expenditure by only 43 cents. Since then the Association has received, usually along with their subscriptions, several donations from Members, including Life and overseas Members. Most wished to remain anonymous and your Committee takes this opportunity to publicly thank those well-wishers.

Another nice gesture was the subscription by a Member for a pre-war retired person who did not know of the Association.

Discounting of Superannuation Pension. Your Committee has had many letters and calls protesting about the 2% discounting of our pensions, together with copies of letters sent to Parliamentarians, but even so we are disappointed that this arbitrary, inequitable, discriminatory and permanent action by the Government did not produce an even greater reaction from Members and, in particular, widows. Perhaps it was not realised fully by all that this was not a one-off action, like the recent deferral of old age pensions for 6 weeks, but one which will continue to reduce our pensions until we die. On the other hand, people may have made protests of which we have no record.

If you have not protested and you are concerned about this reduction in your pension -- and possible further reductions in the future then write to your Commonwealth Member and Senator. The main thing is to ask for an assurance that he/she will fight against any further reduction in our annual C.P.I. increase and demand restoration of this year's 2% discount. Reasons to support this are in the December Newsletter.

We continue to liaise with the Association representing the two other groups of superannuants, and have sent protests to Canberra. More at the A.G.M.

DID YOU HEAR THIS ?

- About thirty people attended the annual picnic for ex-staff, friends and families of UPNG and Admin College and it was a great success, though the numbers were down on last year. Keep this event in mind. The date is New Year's Day each year and the place is Carss Bush Park on Kogarah Bay (Gregory May 211, ref L.14). Check with Bob Bowmer 524 2715 or Don Drover 498 1248 (H), or head there with a picnic lunch and high hopes - next year!
- Ex-Coast watchers Les Williams, Malcolm Wright and Peter Figis had a reunion in Sydney, together with their wives, at Christmas time. The men had met each other severally during the years but this was the first time they had all been together for forty-three years. Their story is told, together with others associated with them: Sir Simogun Peta, Charles Bates, Alan Roberts, Ian Skinner and John Murphy in two books. Malcolm Wright: "If I Die" Landsdown Press 1965, and Peter Ryan: Fear Drive My Feet MUP 1959.
- If you collect badges, buttons and insignia, Ella Parkes, 6 Foyle Avenue, Birrong NSW 2143 would like to correspond.
- June Champness of Geelong (ex-staff UPNG and wife of Dr Len Champness, late of Nonga and Port Moresby Hospitals) recently visited her son Hugh and his wife Claire, and grand-daughter Alexandra in Mosman. Hugh has moved from the RAAF to Qantas.
- Geoff Masters of Hribie Island, QLD. sent in three items: Geoff had been to Sydney to attend the annual dinner of the Cinema Pioneers. Thirty-four had passed away since the last dinner! He reports the death of Tony McIntyre, son of Jim McIntyre who built the Victory Theatre Badilli and the Arcadia Theatre Boroko.
The Newmarket PNG Bowls Day 7/12/86: Some of the two hundred present there were Phil Morrissy of Papua Ootel and later Boroko fame, Noreen Eldridge, widow of Arthur who was a plumber in Port Moresby, Phil Weir, Jack Keenan, Ron Galloway, Phil Chamber, Vic and Molly Thomas, Lorna Binney.

MEMBERSHIP MARCH 1987.

Please advise the Honorary Treasurer Mr. W.J. JOHNSTON, 25 Hillview Street, SAN SOUCI NSW 2219, if any correction to the following list is necessary. Should any friends, former residents of Papua New Guinea wish to join, send their addresses and an application form will be forwarded. NEW MEMBERS MOST WELCOME TO JOIN OUR RANKS.

Rodney Timperley
24. 2.87

A son of Kay and the late Alan Timperley (ex-D.C.) Died suddenly in Brisbane.

There were two errors in Vale for last December, for which we apologise.

The notice beginning "Mrs Paula Grainger" should have read:

Mrs Paula Grainger
10.10.86

Widow of John Grainger, ex-Corrective Services Officer, who died in 1972.

and -

Mrs Barbara Prentice
29. 8.86

Widow of Richard Prentice ex Treasury, who died in 1965.

DID YOU HEAR THIS?

- Ron Sharp (ex-Kiap) is now working for the Occidental Insurance Co.
- Pat Meehan, who now lives in Lawson NSW, has been deeply involved with the late Fr. Mike Morrison of Bundi with planning, promotion and construction of the Bundi Agricultural College. After his retirement in 1968 Pat went back to Bundi and gave as he puts it "two years of very hard work but I must say very rewarding as the school is now flourishing, with an enrolment of over 600 students, including over 100 young women".

Pat assisted in planning and directing the education of John Yama, a Bundi man who is now Head of the College. In 1964 he assisted him in obtaining a scholarship at Campbelltown Agricultural High School, NSW, then to Gatton College in QLD where he obtained his Dip. of Agric. (GDA). After this he obtained an Agricultural Degree from the Manila University in the Philippines. Now John and Pat are in regular correspondence enabling Pat to follow the growth of the College.

- Col and Tina Levy of Box 381 Dapto NSW and their friends have been very much saddened by the death, in a motor accident, of their 16 year old son John. Colin was a chemist with DASF.
- Roma Bates arrived at an Association committee meeting more than a little cross -- someone had stolen her car and gone joyriding to such an extent she was paid the insured value, but with inflation and higher prices this will get only half a car back!!
- Vin Smith, ex DDA, has accepted another 3 year contract in PNG as Assistant Secretary/Mining Warden, Mines Division, Department of Minerals & Energy. Vin is also Deputy President of the Overseas Staffing Assistance Association.
- John Wakeford had no sooner settled into his new quarters on the mid north coast than an aneurism behind the knee sent him into Gosford District Hospital.
- Sorry to hear that Mrs Helen Wayne, whose late husband was aboard the Montevideo Maru, has had a massive coronary in Gisborne, N.Z.
- Harry Jackman writes to say that anyone visiting Canberra should call at the National Library and read the typescript of a book "Recollections" by Doug Joyce. Now 91, he was with the Canadians in WWI and a Medical Assistant in New Guinea from 1933-46. He witnessed the Rabaul eruptions and has produced a highly interesting book.
- For ex Madang-ites: Kathy Cahill is in a nursing home in Cairns, near son and his family. Elizabeth Sowerby, widow of Roy, is living in Burleigh Heads, and Hec Longmore is convalescing after a spell in hospital. He has to take it easy - which must come hard to him.

HAVE YOU HEARD ...?

- Ivan Champion writes that he is now fit and well and playing bowls again - and for some unknown reason plays through the Canberra winter too!! Elsie has been elected patron of the PNG Womens' Wantok Association in Canberra - some 70 members and a very active group. Ivan also is an elected patron of the Australian Chapter of the Explorer's Club of New York. They were both recently honoured by having a new species of bat named after them - the NYCTEMENE CHAMPIONI, found in the ranges behind Telefomin. It has luminous ears and the locals say that anyone who kills the bat will die in 48 hours. (Wouldn't like to meet one on a dark night!).
- Isobel Pert, widow of Jack who was skipper on the Koro, Thetis, Rouna Falls et al, is now living at Noosa and has joined the Association. Son Allan is apprentice chef at Tangalooma Resort and daughter Julie is doing a science degree after a year in the U.S. as an exchange student. Isobel's main interests now are in classifying that wonderful shell collection; garden clubs; Alanon; and close-up photography of spiders.
- Other Noosa residents include Charles and Joan Harrison (Labour). Also understand Moonsa has a small PNG reunion at Easter.
- Other Madang items: Vicki Albert, youngest daughter of footballer Ron, married Brett Middleton last year and they are now living at Dylup Plantation. Ron Mitchell (PWD) has been in Greenslopes and is due to return shortly. Jean Birt now has a pacemaker and is living at Harvey Bay. Readers may have seen the big Pro-Am golf at Tewantin and noticed Audrey Kruger (Woodlands) caddying for Geoff Woodlands, who finished third.
- Our correspondent gave the wrong steer when in December we reported that John Baldwin and Bugandi Jack Amesbury had dissolved their partnership. We were all wrong as it is still thriving. The third member incidentally is Jack Keast (of Golden Handshake fame).
