No 2, 1988 - June.

Dear Member,

Winter is not far off and the wintry wind is beginning to blow. This is the time when one begins to think about winning Lotto, the Lottery - or anything! - and taking off to sojourn in sunny Queensland. One might even be persuaded to go to the south of France, Portugal or perhaps the West Indies! But to be more realistic, the Kaad family is determined to get to Brisbane and Expo before October.

C.P.I. adjustment and increase in superannuation pension. The increase in the consumer price index for the 12 months from 1 April '87 to 31 March '88 was 6.9%. This means that the superannuation pension should increase by that percentage from the first payday in July.

Superannuation paydays and Tax Returns. The 1987-88 financial year includes 27 paydays as the first payday was on 2 July 1987, and the last will be on 30 June 1988. Those who prepare their taxation returns before they receive their Group Certificates from the Australian Government Retirement Benefits Office for their superannuation pension (and/or a Statement of Earnings from the Department of Veterans' Affairs for their Service Pension) should remember to include that extra payment. This extra or 27th payday occurs only once every eleven or twelve years.

The 1987 2% discount on Superannuation. Members will remember that in the last Budget the Government reduced the annual cost of living increase in our superannuation pension by 2%. We were most concerned because this would not only affect us this year but would be a continuing, perpetual reduction in our superannuation. After many protests by the various Associations and organisations and by individual superannuants, the Prime Minister gave an undertaking to restore our pensions to their proper level as soon as economic circumstances allowed. Our friends in the Superannuated Commonwealth Officers' Association have already written to the Prime Minister reminding him of his undertaking and pointing out several statements and actions by the Treasurer which indicate that the economy has improved and that the pensions could be restored. Your Association will be considering similar action once the May Statement has been examined.

* * * * *

MAY STATEMENT: The Treasurer's "Mini-Budget" was issued just as this Newsletter went to press. It would appear that it will not affect the Superannuation pension of those already retired but it will affect future retirees and some investment income. Your Committee will check the Statement and its effects in detail and take any action which may appear necessary. This will be reported in the next 'Una Voce'. However because individuals' finances are different and the effects of the Statement rather complicated, Members are advised to consult a financial adviser or the Taxation Officer if they have any queries about investing or tax.

MORE ABOUT TRAVEL CONCESSIONS: Our last issue gave details of the travel concessions now available in NSW to all retired persons over 60 not in full time employment. Further concessions have been granted:

- The Newcastle Suburban Area has been extended to include Gosford so that you can travel from Newcastle to Gosford for 60 cents.
- The Outer Metropolitan Area has been extended to include the Newcastle Suburban area so that you can now travel from, say, Moss Vale or Dapto in the south to Dungog in the north for $1.00.
- The application fee of $10.00 has been waived and a refund will be made to those who have already paid.
- Long distance bus companies may recognise the Concession Authority - you'll have to make enquiries individually.
- Greater Union Theatres will recognise the Authority and give a 50% concession to all sessions except Saturday night.

Eat your hearts out, all you people from other States! If you live in a capital city you might get together with the local branch of the Superannuated Commonwealth Officers' Association and see what can be done in your State.

The President reported that one of our members recently had his "Undeducted Purchase Price of Pension disallowed in his last tax return even though details of the amount to claim had originally been supplied by the Taxation Commissioner. He has appealed and, like a few of our other Members in Queensland will no doubt have the matter rectified. It is interesting to note that, as far as we are aware, this has only happened to a few of our members in Queensland. However, if any members should have trouble in this regard don't hesitate to appeal and if your appeal fails please let your Association know.

The President said that those members who have invested in shares should ensure that they do not pay tax on any franked portion of the dividends they receive under the new imputation system. The Government last year collected over $400,000,000 it was not entitled to from taxpayers who did not take this into account

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The past year has been a somewhat uneventful one for the Association. The Commonwealth Treasurer was more kindly to us in this years budget, but enquiries with respect to the restoration of the 2% of our increase which we lost last year have met with a great silence. Consequently, I personally believe we can kiss that 2% goodbye, but, because of the massive condemnation the Federal Government received from pensioners last year as a result of its action, I am certain that it will think twice before it does the same thing again.

We maintain contact with SCOA (the Superannuated Commonwealth Officers' Association) as some of us are members of that organisation. Consequently, we are kept informed about all matters which might affect those of us who are superannuants and, as SCOA is continuing to press for the restoration of the 2% reduction, we will support them in their endeavours.

With respect to the taxation situation it is understood that a general review of the overall taxation system has been under way and there may well be some changes to take effect from the beginning of the next financial year. The Federal Treasurer has announced that there will be an Economic Statement later this month. It appears that an aim of the Statement will be to attract a favourable reaction overseas to maintain the value of the Australian Dollar and keep interest rates down. Revenue resulting from the Fringe Benefits and Capital Gains Taxes has apparently exceeded expectations and reports suggest that the Government will be planning for a significant budget surplus in 1988/89. Recent reports would seem to indicate that any prospects for taxation cuts in the Statement may have diminished because of the economic situation which has been unveiled over the past two months. A significant increase in the deficit and a deterioration in our trading balance, particularly during March, does not auger well for the future.

Those of you who pay Provisional Tax will no doubt have discovered that the Commissioner has significantly increased his 'up front' take, particularly with respect to the interest on investments.

Possibly the most beneficial action by any government during the year for those of us who are over sixty and retired or not engaged in full-time work was the recent action by the N.S.W. Government in introducing its Transport Concessions for Senior Citizens. As outlined in the last issue of Una Voce the concessions are quite substantial and better still the new Premier has stated that he will refund the $10 charged for the Concession Ticket.

Now to Association matters!

My grateful thanks again to all members of the Committee for their co-operation and hard work on your behalf during the year. Some of them, however, deserve special mention.

You will remember that last year in my report I stated that one of the most important duties of your Committee was the production and despatch of our Newsletter, Una Voce, to all members of the Association. I commended Les Clout and his wife Doreen for the great work that they had performed in being solely responsible for this task for some eight years.

Elma Holmes took over the task for 1987/88 and Les helped her with the September 1987 issue, but since then Elma has done most of the work by herself with assistance from some of us in the actual mailing.

I don't think any of us had any real appreciation of the magnitude of the task involved. Consequently, we can never thank Les and Doreen enough for their tremendous effort over the years. I am sorry that they are not with us to-day because, even though the Committee has tried to indicate to them both our very deep appreciation for their efforts, I believe they deserve a special resolution of an AGM to properly do this and after this report I will be proposing such a motion.

This then brings me to the person who currently performs the task, Elma Holmes. Elma has carried on in the same dedicated and efficient manner as the Clouts and I commend her to you as a person who also deserves a very special mention. Please show her your appreciation.

Our Deputy President, Fred Kaad, has continued his good work as Editor of Una Voce and I congratulate him on his efforts ably assisted when necessary by Bob Pulsford and Bill Kelly.

Joe Nitsche, our Secretary, has carried out his duties in a most admirable manner during the year and has worked tirelessly in advancing the Association's interests, especially in his efforts to gain new members. I sincerely hope he will be continuing in this role, a very big thank you, Joe!

Assistant Secretary, Pam Foley, has been most efficient as always and has continued to carry out her duties most diligently. Pam is also a member of the Social Committee and ably assists that Committee in its tasks. Good work, Pam!

One of the most hardworking members of our Committee during the past year has been our Treasurer, Bill Johnston, who has carried out his duties in a most efficient and effective manner. The Treasurer's job demands a continuing commitment right throughout the year receiving money, writing receipts, paying our bills, banking and investing our funds, notifying Elma Holmes of changes of address, writing innumerable letters, maintaining our books of account, producing financial reports for Committee meetings and the AGM, preparing our balance sheet at the end of each financial year and filing our tax returns. No mean task and Bill has done a splendid job, many many thanks, Bill!

Harry West has carried on his good work as Chairman of the Social and Membership Committee during the year, ably assisted by Pam Foley, Roma Bates, Marcia Lightfoot, Joe Nitsche, Bill Johnston and Chris Downie. They have been responsible for organising our luncheons and have done an excellent job. Harry, many thanks to you and your Committee for a job well done!

The Legal and Administrative Committee consisting of Dr. Stan Wigley, Bill Johnston and myself has not been called upon very much during the past year but we have been there when needed. Stan, after three years service on the Committee is not standing for re-election but has promised to help whenever called upon, thank you Stan!

The Caring Committee, consisting of Christina Grant, Roma Bates, Joe Nitsche and very ably chaired by my wife Candy, has continued its great work during the past year. It has brought solace and comfort to many people and brightened the lives of others, particularly the more elderly, by remembering their birthdays when perhaps they may have thought they were forgotten. I very much regret that Candy will not be standing again for re-election because of other personal commitments but I very strongly commend her and her Committee for the excellent way that they have performed their duties with the utmost tact and compassion.

Lastly, I very much regret to announce that our great old stalwart, Tom Aitcheson, who has done such a sterling job over many years as our Auditor, is retiring from the position. Our very sincere congratulations, Tom, for the excellent manner in which you have performed the very important duty of Auditor of our Association over many years. Many many thanks for a job so well done!

Finally, my very best wishes to the incoming Committee for a most successful 1988/89.

Doug Parrish.
PRESIDENT.

He later became Commissioner for the Revision of the Laws of PNG and continued to update the work until his retirement in 1986. Always friendly, approachable and helpful, Jack exercised a significant influence in the development of the field officers and teachers who passed through ASOPA, and in the development of the law in PNG. He enjoyed the affection and respect of his colleagues and all who came in contact with him during this long period.

ARTHUR CAREY

Arthur served in the RAAF in WWII. After training as a teacher he went to PNG in 1947 as a Patrol Officer and worked his way through the field service to become D.C. Rabaul and then D.C. Lae. After retirement he lived in Wangaratta, where he took a very active part in community life becoming, amongst other things, Secretary of the Turf Club, Secretary of the Golf Club, member of Rotary and very active in assisting youth in the Commonwealth Employment Service. Fellow officers came from Melbourne, Canberra & Sydney for Arthur's funeral, where the following tribute gives an idea of his service and popularity:

" How do you measure lengths of love, the value of a smile;
Or is it from a ruler that we determine who is kind?
If gentleness is worth a five, then how much to forgive;
And who can say just what it's worth to help others love to live.
How important is it to be there when others are in need,
With generosity everyday - while around us so much greed.
How can we assess the tenderness, that's needed when we're down,
Or the devotion to ones partner, that all too often is not found.
What's the rate for being approachable, the score for giving hugs,
You can't compute in goals or points, the value put on love.
The appraisal of these attributes, so indefinable,
Are lacking in us all these days, their users are so few.
But Arthur Carey had them all, he showed them every day,
Each time he smiled or said hello, was in his special way.
So, what's the sum, the final score, now Arthur's had his call?
I would suggest to you my friends, the scoreboard's just TOO

SMALL!"

VISIT TO THE BLUE MOUNTAINS. A very pleasant day was spent on 9th May with some of our Members from the Mountains Area at Wentworth Falls Grand View Hotel, and later at the home of Bill Tomasetti.

Those who attended were Tom and June Blacker, Marie Day, Kay Donnelly, Linda Evans, Bonnie Dunn, Aileen Giles, Ken Gorringer, Kevin & Joan Hain, Ted Hicks, Pat Hopper, Isobel Ireland, Pat Jones, Kim and Elaine Kimmorley, David Marsh, Flora & Jo Nitsche, Pat & Lauren Meehan, Doug & Candy Parrish, Bob Pulsford, Bill Tomasetti, Harry West and Les & Margarett Williams.

Most of the Sydneysiders took advantage of the new travel concessions for the over-60's and went by train for the sum of $1.00 return - and no worries about driving. Loud and long were the complaints of one Member who had not picked up his Concession Authority and had to pay $13.00 return. I'm told it took four quick drinks to quieten him down!

The day was enjoyed by all and there is talk of another mountain trip probably late Spring. And in the meantime the possibility of a similar excursion to the Central Coast is to be explored in which case Members from the Newcastle area could also join in.

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO.....????

Our initiative taken in the March Newsletter to include a section for Members seeking news of long lost friends appears to have been a flop as we have had no further queries. However we are not disheartened and will keep the section going. We shall publish the query and the name and address of the inquirer, and hopefully someone will be able to supply the answer direct to the inquirer.

In the meantime we have some official queries with which we should like your help --

HAVE YOU HEARD.....??

- "A MEDAST'S WAY" is the title of a small book by Jim Rudge, dealing with his experiences as a Medical Assistant during the war, mainly in the Kerema and Popondetta areas. It is interesting, amusing and very readable, and reveals much about local peopple and the problems faced by those trying to help them. Well worth reading, it brings back many memories and gives an insight into the work of a group of officers whose abilities I have always believed were never sufficiently understood or recognised.

Unfortunately Jim had only a small run printed -- there are only a few copies left so contact him A S.A.P. at 5 McLean Road Campbelltown 2560 or preferably on 046-25 3417.

- Mona Normoyle decided that her Bowral home was too big and has moved to a retirement unit at Villa 41, 36-42 Bayview Garden Village, Cabbage Tree Rd., Bayview 2104.

- John Murphy was adjusting a sun umbrella at his home in Brisbane at Christmas when a gust of wind opened the umbrella and tossed John down a steep slope onto his neighbour's trees. This resulted in two unstable fractures in his neck and he was in a fibreglass cast from head to hip at Greenslopes for four months. Hopefully he's now back home, having to take things very carefully. With typical Murphy humour he's now claiming an entry in the Guinness Book of Records as the first man in Chapel Hill to take off without power.

HAVE YOU HEARD ...?

- PNG of late has had a lot of publicity on the political side. But there are lighter sides. The Kumuls, PNG's Rugby League team, have recently played a test against Great Britain in Port Moresby. At the end of June they are off to N.Z. where they play several local matches including a test at Auckland on July 10th, then to Australia.

For followers, they will be playing on the 16th July at Nowra, then the test against Australia on 20 July at Wagga Wagga, then on July 24 at Bathurst against NSW Country, on July 26 at Gosford against Central Coast. Hopefully some players will be included in the Rest of the World team to play Australia at the Sydney Stadium on July 27.

PNG has the honour of having Graham Ainui, a policeman, to referee the game between Australia and the Rest of the World. Certainly a great feat, and we congratulate him.

- Bobby Gibbes is recovering at home in Collaroy after a rather traumatic spell in hospital where he had both knees replaced

* * * * *

- Gwen Sheekey is also in hospital for a similar operation on one knee. Husband Peter is doing a Cordon Bleu cookery course in training for her return.

* * * * *

- Fred Hargesheimer is back in PNG for a few days, returning to the States via Sydney 11th June. Enroute he will be seeing our Gold Coast confreres at their usual get-together on 6th June. Fred was the U.S. pilot shot down over New Britain, succoured by the Nantambu people and brought to Coast Watcher Ian Skinner who arranged for a sub-marine to take Fred, Bill Townsend and his navigator back to Australia. He returned in 1961 to thank his rescuers and ultimately built them the Airmen's Memorial School at Bialla.

And did you hear! Seven anti-aircraft shells were found in the stomach of a cow slaughtered at Lae Abbatoirs. The shells - which were live - posed a mystery for Defence Force staff at the Ingam Barracks. With each shell weighing more than three kilograms, they are at a loss to explain how the cow ingested them - and how it kept walking around with seven of them inside her. Certainly biting the bullets.

- Most Members will have known or heard of Tom Cole, the buffalo hunter turned crocodile shooter turned coffee planter. Tom has recently had his second book about the Northern Territory published. Its title 'Hell West and Crooked' and I hear the second edition is on its way. Those who like tall stories of adventure with some humour thrown in should search it out. I also understand Tom is writing a book about his days in PNG. Now THAT should be really interesting reading - but one wonders what gossip bits will be left out!?!

- Ted Hayes is off to the US, England, Europe and back via Japan. He has a 1910 set of Frank Lloyd Wright reproductions he is presenting to the F.L.W. Foundation in Arizona.

HAVE YOU HEARD...?

- Barbara Burns and her sister from Melbourne were seen last week in the Powerhouse Museum near Sydney's Darling Harbour. Both were very impressed with the quality and variety of what they'd seen and the imaginative way the exhibits were shown. They agreed that it should not be missed when visiting Sydney -- their only complaint was that it really needed a pair of roller skates and more than one day to see everything.

- John and Olwen Ryan of Bagara are back home recuperating after hospital - Olwen with a slight stroke and John with a hip replacement. Glad to hear they're improving.

- It's not all happening in Brisbane! Hear that Harry Roach lost his seat on Noosa Shire Council but Geoff Littler topped the poll in his division in Maroochy Shire.

- Kay Triggs writes from Perth to say she enjoys the Newsletter and would welcome a call from interstate visitors to W.A.

- Harry and Grace Jackman are somewhere in Europe in the Eastern Bloc. About right now they'll be on their way to visit the Sans Souci Palace at Potsdam near Berlin, provided - as Harry says - the East Germans let them in!

- Jim Ritchie, who retired from Treasury to become Deputy Vice-Chancellor at the University of Queensland, has been honoured by having the Ritchie Research Laboratories there named after him. Jim's brain-child, the Laboratories were built from the University's own finances as revenue producers to be leased to commercially oriented or externally funded University activities.

ARE YOU IN THE RED ? SUBS. NOW DUE :

QUOTABLE QUOTES:

The section giving extracts from Shakespeare appropriate to our life in PNG brought much appreciation verbally - but only two people replied with quotations of their own. A most disappointing result for your editor as I hoped that the excerpts would not only amuse you but stir you to sending in your own, which in turn would have amused others. Hopefully the following will get a better response this time:

From Lynn Clark, who has been dipping into Rudyard Kipling --

On a night out with friends in the Snake Pit -

"I've a head like a concertina: I've a tongue like a button-stick, I've a mouth like an old potato, and I'm more than a little sick."

On pitching camp -

"Then blue smoke-haze of the cooking rose,
And tent-peg answered to hammer-nose."

On travelling aboard a K boat in a howling south-easterly -

"Overloaded, undermanned, meant to - founder, we Euchered God Almighty's storm, bluffed the Eternal Sea."

On the delegation of authority from above -

"Go to your work and be strong, halting not in your ways, Baulking the end half-won for an instant dole of praise."

On the years immediately before Independence -

"Here is my heart, my soul, my mind - the only life I know.
I cannot leave it all behind, Command me not to go!"

On respect given to the senior field officer -

"This we learned from famous men,
Knowing not we learned it.
Only, as the years went by -
Lonely as the years went by -
Far from help as years went by,
Plainer we discerned it."

On some light-fingerted who appeared in our Courts -

"They knew 'e stole; 'e knew they knowed.
They didn't tell, nor make a fuss,
But winked at Omer down the road,
An' 'e winked back - the same as us!"

On evaluating job performance before promotion -

"Ye have read, ye have heard, ye have thought," he said, "and the tale is yet to run;
By the worth of the body that once ye had,
give answer - what ha' ye done?"

And from Ken Brown - not a quotation but a couple of enjoyable reminiscences:

"While ADC Rabaul in 1963 I fined a local prostitute five pounds after hearing a complaint brought by the police following a town clean-up. Shortly after the case finished I went to see what the commotion in front of the Sub-District Office was all about. There was the lady waving an official receipt above her head and shouting "Me got laisin nau!" "

And again --

"During a reception for a UNO Visiting Mission in 1963 the Chairman tricked the Arab member into eating a sandwich in which ham had been concealed. He then said to the Muslim "You have sinned by eating the ham. When I commit a small sin I give up eating oranges - my favourite fruit - for a week. For a bigger sin such as you have committed I refrain from amorous pursuits for a month. Tell us, how are you going to repent?" The Arab replied "Since my sin was unintentional I don't have to repent too much. But what about you? You intentionally caused me to break my law, which is a much bigger sin. If you are genuine in what you say you do, your homecoming after this visit is obviously going to leave a lot to be desired!"

STOP PRESS !!

VISIT TO THE CENTRAL COAST -

Arrangements have been made for a day visit to the Central Coast (Gosford area) on Monday August 1st. This would be a good opportunity for the Novocastrians and the Sydneysiders to join the Central Coast locals.

For details ring Doug Parrish on (02) 467-2966.
